General information

The operator of the raportroczny2017.enea.pl and raportcsr2017.enea.pl websites (hereinafter: "Website") is Agencja Reklamowa ART GROUP Sp. z o.o. (hereinafter: "Website Operator").

The Website collects information about its users (hereinafter: "Website Users" or "Website User", accordingly) and their behaviour in the following ways:

- saving cookies on the Website User's end devices,
- collecting web server logs by the Website Operator's hosting service provider.

Information about cookies

The Website uses cookies.

Cookies (or cookie files) are data, specifically text files, stored on the Website User's end device, and are intended to aid browsing the Website and its sections. Cookies usually contain the name of the site they come from, the time they have been stored on the end device, and a unique number.

The entity that creates cookies on the Website User's end device and accesses them is the Website Operator.

Cookies are used for the following purposes:

- Protection against spam bots filling in the contact form

The Website uses two main types of cookies: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are temporary files that are stored on the Website User's end device until they log out, leave the site or close the software (the web browser). Persistent cookies are stored on the Website User's end device for a period specified in their parameters or until they are removed by the Website User

The software used for browsing websites (the web browser) usually allows for storing cookies on the Website User's end device by default. The Website Users may change the settings in this respect. The web browser allows for the removal of cookies. It is also possible to block them automatically. More information is provided in the help section or the manual of the web browser.

Restrictions on the use of cookies may affect certain functionalities available on the Website's sections.

Server logs

Information about certain behaviours of the Website User is logged on the server. Such data is used exclusively for the administration of the Website and to ensure the most efficient hosting service possible.

Resources viewed by the Website User are identified by URL addresses. In addition, the following data may also be saved:

- Time of the query,
- Time of the response,
- Name of the client's station - as identified by the HTTP protocol,
- Information about any errors which may have occurred during the HTTP transaction,

- URL address of the site previously visited by the Website User (the referrer link) – only if the Website User accessed the Website via a link,
- Information about the Website User's web browser,
- Information about the Website User's IP address.

This data is not associated with any specific person viewing the Website.

The data is used for the administration of the Website only.

Sharing data

The data is to be shared with third parties only to the extent permitted by law.

Any data which can be used to identify an individual is to be shared only with the consent of the person with whom the data is associated.

The Website Operator may be obliged to provide the information collected by the Website to authorised bodies pursuant to their lawful requests and to the extent of the request only.

Managing the cookies – how to give and withdraw your consent?

If you do not wish not receive cookies, you may change the cookie settings of your web browser. However, if the Website User disables the cookies required for the processes of authentication, security or for storing the Website User's preferences, this may impair the correct functioning of many sites.

In order to find out how to manage your cookie settings, select your web browser/operating system from the list below and follow the instructions:

- Internet Explorer
- Chrome
- Safari
- Firefox
